Description

Taking much of its style traits from the E460 and E52 cases, this 40 liter matte black case is sold individually so it can be used as a top case or 2 can be purchased to use them on the side. Unable to hold a full face helmet, this case is ideal in satisfying the most demanding space requirements of the traveler during mid/long range trips. Sold separately, additional accessories are available including an inner bag allowing quick removal of your goods and a top case rack to provide more packing options.
